PHOOLWARI

'Phoolwari' the exclusive summer collection from the house of Angad Creations takes inspiration from the vast meadows of Kashmir where flowers are nestled like the stars in a clear sky.

The soothing colours of the fabrics and the comfort strike a parallel to the feeling when the eyes gaze at a flower bed, which translates to 'Phoolwari'.

CHINON CHARISMA

This isn't your average Chinon though, it features an ombre effect, meaning the color gradually deepens or lightens from one end to the other. The kurti has soft pastels transitioning to vibrant hues, or deep jewel tones fading into a lighter shade.

AMETHYST ROYALTY

Intricate embroidery adorns the kurta. Delicate floral motifs dance across the neckline, sleeves, and hem. The design's signature touch is a subtle floral pattern woven into the fabric to give a sense of comfort and luxury.

RESHAM PHIRAN

The Satin Phiran Suit drapes beautifully with a soft sheen thanks to its satin fabric. The silhouette of the Phiran, a long tunic, flatters many body types. Complementing the Phiran is a dupatta, a long scarf made of airy organza, adding a touch of lightness. But the true showstopper is the antique Tilla embroidery.

MAHARANI'S TARANA

The breathtaking centerpiece is a flowing georgette lehenga, a luxurious fabric known for its beautiful drape. A contrasting crepe blouse perfectly complements the georgette's texture. This blouse adds a touch of structure with its close-fitting silhouette. But the true magic lies in the exquisite embellishments. The blouse features cutwork, a technique where patterns are meticulously carved out of the fabric, creating a delicate lacy effect.

NILAMBARI

The name translates to 'Cloud Dancer', taking inspiration from the rare silver coloured clouds that dance occasionally in between summer giving relief from the heat. Nilambari is a poetic name suggesting a light and graceful drape.

NAKSHI RAJAT

Intricate hand-embroidered zari work in a stunning shade of "Rajat" (silver) adorns the kurta, adding a touch of regal opulence. Nakshi here means embroidered or decorated, which perfectly describes the intricate design of the Kurta.

RAJWADI CRIMSON

Rajwadi Crimson evokes a sense of royalty. The kurta is made from raw silk, dyed in a deep, opulent crimson. This rich color is a signature of design, often associated with celebrations and festivities.

PAISLEY TWILIGH

The fabric is adorned with a mesmerizing floral paisley print. Delicate blooms dance across the surface, their colors deepening from soft pastels to richer tones as they intertwine with swirling paisley motifs. The twilight influence might be reflected in a subtle color gradient, with floral designs at the hem transitioning to subtle tones on the bodice.
